

St Therese's Parish Essendon

11 & 12 December 2021
Third Sunday of Advent Year C

First Reading Zep 3:14-18 A reading from the prophet Zephaniah

With gladness the Lord will rejoice over you.

Shout for joy, daughter of Zion, Israel, shout aloud! Rejoice, exult with all your heart, daughter of Jerusalem! The Lord has repealed your sentence; he has driven your enemies away. The Lord, the king of Israel, is in your midst; you have no more evil to fear.

When that day comes, word will come to Jerusalem: Zion, have no fear, do not let your hands fall limp. The Lord your God is in your midst, a victorious warrior.

He will exult with joy over you, he will renew you by his love; he will dance with shouts of joy for you as on a day of festival.

Gospel Lk 3:10-18 A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke

What, then, must we do?

When all the people asked John, 'What must we do?' he answered, 'If anyone has two tunics he must share with the man who has none, and the one with something to eat must do the same.' There were tax collectors too who came for baptism, and these said to him, 'Master, what must we do?' He said to them, 'Exact no more than your rate.' Some soldiers asked him in their turn, 'What about us? What must we do?' He said to them, 'No intimidation! No extortion! Be content with your pay!'

A feeling of expectancy had grown among the people, who were beginning to think that John might be the Christ, so John declared before them all, 'I baptise you with water, but someone is coming, someone who is more powerful than I am, and I am not fit to undo the strap of his sandals; he will baptise you with the Holy Spirit and fire. His winnowing-fan is in his hand to clear his threshing-floor and to gather the wheat into his barn; but the chaff he will burn in a fire that will never go out.' As well as this, there were many other things he said to exhort the people and to announce the Good News to them.

We are at the midpoint of Advent. Today we celebrate Gaudete Sunday. The principal theme of the day is joy. According to Paul, joy is one of the fruits of the Spirit (cf. Gal 5:22). Such joy is a religious sentiment, not emotional happiness. Along with gratitude, it is the heart's response to God's goodness. Zion is told to shout for joy because it has been saved by God from its enemies and because God is in the midst of the people. The psalm response proclaims the same message; the reading from Philippians announces that the Lord is near. This is cause for joy.

Advent is a time for joy, not primarily because we are anticipating the anniversary of the birth of Christ, but because God is already in our midst (Immanuel). The readings for this Sunday assure us that God is with us, not as a judge but as a Saviour. We rejoice over the saving acts of God that make us confident of God's care and unafraid of whatever may cross our paths. We rejoice in the peace of God that surpasses all understanding. Advent joy is like the delight that fills a woman who has just given birth, even if it occurred in the throes of birthpangs. Advent joy springs from the realisation that the presence of God in our midst can so transform our lives that the promises of peace and security will be fulfilled. Advent joy is the way we live in the tension between already and not yet.

ST THERESE'S VOLUNTEERS FUNCTION CANCELLED After consideration and with much regret, we have decided to cancel this year's volunteer's Christmas function. We were hopeful that we could hold our gathering before Christmas but have decided that the risks outweigh the rewards. The health and safety of our parishioners remains our highest priority. We look forward to gathering some time in 2022 as a parish community when the risks to our most vulnerable members have diminished.

INTERCESSIONS

In these times of joyful expectation let us bring our needs before the God of hope and salvation.

For the Holy people of God, may we remain faithful to our baptismal calling to prepare the way for the Lord. Lord, hear us

For young people, may they respond to the challenges of the Gospel enthusiastically and build a new world. Lord, hear us

We pray for Charlotte, Owen and Mateo who are presented this weekend for the sacrament of Baptism. That they lead a life of faith and love for all. Lord, hear us

For the teachers, students and parents from parish school who finish up the school year on Wednesday. May they enjoy a well-earned break and recharge their batteries in preparation for the next year ahead. Lord, hear us

For this community, that in this time of Advent we will open our hearts to those around us in a spirit of joy and generosity. Lord, hear us

We pray for those who are ill, especially Cas Lukauskas and Bryan Guiney

For our own special needs. Lord, hear us

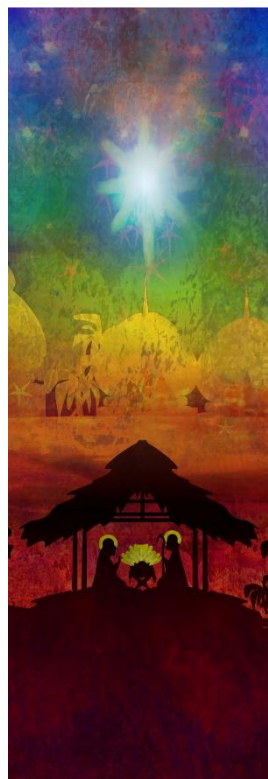

For those who have died recently: Frank Camiller, Kathleen Moloney, Patrice Gbikpi, Patricia Meli

And for those whom we remember at this time, especially: Therese Dobbie, Ray Farrelly, Michael Hegarty, Kevin Hogan, Lord, hear us

Lord God, the coming of your Son is near. Hear our prayers, and guide us with patience and renewed faith as we wait in joyful hope. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen
